

JBHA Library Reading Challenge

Cook a food that is featured in your book.	Read in a bathtub (water optional).	Draw a scene from your book.	Read to someone over the age of 65 virtually.	Make a sock puppet for a character in your book.
Read out loud to something or someone who can't read.	Recommend a book to someone virtually.	Read a non-fiction book.	Recreate a scene from your book where you play all the different characters.	Read under a piece of furniture.
Read outside (if safe and not wet).	Read a book from a genre new to you.	Read a book you've owned a long time, but never read.	Create a book trailer for a book. (like a movie trailer)	Read while you are upside down.
Read an ebook	Read a book of poetry.	Read in a blanket fort.	Create a crossword puzzle or word search about your book.	Listen to an audiobook.
Create a board game or card game based on your book.	Create and record a rap about your book.	Take a shelfie (a picture of your bookshelf at home).	Check out an ebook or audiobook from your public library.	Read for 30 minutes without distractions.

#jbhalibraryreadingchallenge